The meeting was called to order at 7:30 PM by club president, Sam Birchfield. The February minutes were read and accepted. Treasurer's report was read: balance brought forward was 33,027.31, deposits were 182.00, disbursements were 1,288.06 with an ending balance of 31,921.25.

Guests this month were: John Webster 2nd meeting, Jeff Keller 1st meeting, Gary Elderth 2nd meeting, Tim Frady 1st meeting, Anne Shaffer 3rd meeting, Rodger Shaffer 3rd meeting, David Palmberg 2nd meeting, David Wooten 3rd meeting, Todd Miller 3rd meeting, Chris Niehaus 3rd meeting, John Grogran 5th meeting, James Kahrl 1st meeting, and Jess Lampfear 1st meeting.

Old Business:

- The 4H shooting team provided snacks for the members and reported to the club about their year. In August they competed at the regional competition. All of the team members qualified for the state competition, and attended the state competition. Thank you to all the members and parents who help out with youth programs!
- Next month will be the annual banquet held at Catawba United Methodist. All members and prospect members are invited to come and bring their spouse to join us for a night of food and fellowship.
- Dues may be paid early at next month's meeting. Dues deadline is May 31.
- Brian Miller reported that the new controllers for the skeet machines are in and hooked up.
- David Gibbs reported that after reviewing range rules, section 9E is not the only rule that needs to be updated. A committee was formed to review and update all range rules. Contact David Gibbs (secretary) if you would like to join this committee.
- Tim Drum reported to the club that he found a place that will rebuild the wobble trap machine. A motion was made to have the wobble trap refurbished. The motion passed.
- David Wooten provided the club with a sign to be put out when the 200/300 yard range is in use. Also, he provided the club with an updated aerial view of the range printed on a piece of aluminum. Thank you, David Wooten!

New Business

- The club received two letters of thanks from Bunker Hill High school for allowing their Hunter Safety program to use the range.
- David Gibbs informed the club that the CVRP Outlaw 3 Gun match has bought a new center fire dueling for the club's use. This target needs to be all the way at the berm when used.
- 5 signs were made with the club's physical address to hung at all ranges in case of medical emergency.
- Any members interested in attending an emergency medical class at Catawba Valley Community College should contact David Gibbs.
- Keith Harper reminded club members that A Triggered Response will be holding P2 and P3 classes March 24 and 25. Contact Keith if you are interested in top level defensive pistol training.
- Due to the muddy condition of the additional parking area club approved for gravel to be spread on it.
- John Grogan, Chris Niehaus, and David Wooten were voted into membership.
- Meeting adjourned at 8:30pm

Respectfully submitted,

David Gibbs

Secretary CVRPC
